Song, Dance & Story!

10th Annual Mary Kawena Pukui Performing Arts Festival

Saturday, February 13 • 10:00 a.m. to 4 p.m.
Great Lawn, Bishop Museum

$5 reduced admission for kama'āina and military (with valid ID)

This year's theme, "Celebrate — Song, Dance, and Story," offers a journey down life's paths through traditional and innovative stories, songs, and dances. Highlights include:

- Dynamic ECHO group performance featuring performers from Alaska, Mississippi, Massachusetts, and Hawai'i, and directed by Peter Rockford Espiritu of Tau Dance Theatre
- Dramatic storytelling, including ...
 - "Stories of Moloka'i" with Makia Malo
 - "Mo'olelo Hulu" with Paulette Kahalepuna
 - Three new animal-themed presentations from Bishop Museum's cultural educators
- Hawaiian practitioners, including Hui Ku Maoli Ola (Hawaiian plants), Nā Lei Hawai'i (lei making), and Pā Ku'i Kalo (poi pounding)
- Aerobic performances by Samadhi Hawai'i
- Plus, games and activities for the whole family!

For more information about the event, call 847-3511 or visit us online at www.bishopmuseum.org.

This event is sponsored by grants from the Education through Cultural and Historical Organizations (ECHO). The purpose of ECHO programming is to amplify educational benefits, foster greater appreciation of local and national history, and assist communities in maximizing the social benefits of new technologies.
