

WHALES

Wonders of the Ocean

BISHOP MUSEUM

Public Lecture Series

The following lectures are being presented in conjunction with

WHALES: WONDERS OF THE OCEAN

a traveling exhibit by WonderWorks, on view
May 17 through September 21, 2008.

Talks will be held at the Bishop Museum Castle Memorial Building, 2nd Floor and are FREE with admission.

Saturday, May 17, 11 a.m. to noon

Using Suction Cup Tags to Learn to Speak "Whale"

Speaker: Alison Stimpert, University of Hawaii at Manoa, Zoology Department

Sunday, June 22, 11 a.m. to noon

When Is It Too Late - The Functional Extinction of the Baiji (Yangtze River Dolphin)

Speaker: Michael Richlen, University of Hawaii at Manoa, Zoology Department

Saturday, July 19, 11 a.m. to noon

Marine Mammal Conservation Issues and Management Programs in the Main Hawaiian Islands

Speaker: David Schofield, NOAA's Pacific Islands Regional Office

Saturday, August 16, 11 a.m. to noon

Whales and Dolphins of Hawaii: Results of 1993-03 Aerial Surveys

Speaker: Dr. Joe Mobley, University of Hawaii at Manoa

Saturday, Sept 20, 11 a.m. to noon

Testing the Hearing of Dolphins, Whales and Polar Bears

Speaker: Dr. Paul Nachtigall, University of Hawaii at Manoa Marine Mammal Research Program

For more information please call (808) 847-3511 or visit www.bishopmuseum.org